Nominal Charge For Alterations

One last Heroic Effort to minimize the Winter Stocks. Fifteen days of heartless, reckless, profitless, underpricing and the Winter Season of 1910 with us will be but a memory. This is the message we always have for you along about this time of the year, and we think you await it with some degree of im-patience.

It is
wellknown that we have the original and only $12.45 Suit
and Overcoat Sale of Lexington--others may imitate the price but not the quality. The Sacrifice Prices on the Clothing advertised here will in no way cover the original cost of goods, but right here is the stepping stone of this store's phenomenal success. Included are the best products of three of the foremost makers of High-Grade Clothing in America, such as Hart, Schaffner & Marx's. We announce without hesitation that this sale surpasses all previous choice of the house sales. Nothing reserved, everything included, even our Blue Serges and Blacks, all must go; our loss, your gain. Here you will find the best of Foreign and Domestic Weaves in Fancy Worsteds, Soft Finish Cassimeres, Tweeds, Velours, as well as Staple Blues and Plain Blacks. The significance of this great offering will be realized when it is understood that these are suits we have sold regularly at $27.50, $25.00, $22.50, $20.00 and $18.00
